[AS AMENDED BY STANDING COMMITTEE B]

INTITULED

An Act to provide for the time in Great Britain, Northern Ireland, the Channel Islands, and the Isle of Man being in advance of Greenwich mean time during a certain period of the year. A.D. 1922.

BE it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1.—(1) The time for general purposes in Great Britain shall, during the period of summer time, be one hour in advance of Greenwich mean time. Advance of time during certain period.

(2) Wherever any reference to a point of time occurs in any enactment, Order in Council, order, regulation, rule, byelaw, deed, notice or other document whatsoever, the time referred to shall, during the period of summer time, be deemed, subject as hereinafter provided, to be the time as fixed for general purposes by this Act.

(3) Nothing in this Act shall affect the use of Greenwich mean time for purposes of astronomy, meteorology, or navigation, or affect the construction of any document mentioning or referring to a point of time in connection with any of those purposes.

2.—(1) This Act shall apply to Northern Ireland, the Channel Islands and the Isle of Man in like manner as it applies to Great Britain, and the Royal Courts of the Channel Islands shall register this Act accordingly. Application to Channel Islands and Isle of Man.

[Bill 175]

A.D. 1922.

(2) For the purposes of section six of the Government of Ireland Act, 1920, this Act in its application to Northern Ireland shall be deemed to be an Act passed before the appointed day.

Interpretation, short title and duration.

3.—(1) For the purposes of this Act, the period of 5
summer time shall be taken to be the period beginning at two o'clock, Greenwich mean time, in the morning of the day next following the third Saturday in April, or, if that day is Easter Day, the day next following the second Saturday in April, and ending at two o'clock, 10 Greenwich mean time, in the morning of the day next following the third Saturday in September.

(2) This Act may be cited as the Summer Time Act, 1922.

(3) This Act shall continue in force until the thirty- 15
first day of December, nineteen hundred and twenty-three,
and no longer, unless Parliament otherwise determines,
and nothing in this Act shall affect the operation of the Summer Time Act, 1916, or any Order in Council made under that Act. 20
